To Whom It May Concern:

Lanca Contracting Ltd. undertook a 5000 square foot addition at Ball Media Corporation in the summer and fall of 2007. The professionalism, attention to detail and thorough understanding of our requirements ensured complete satisfaction. Lanca took the time to explain the process, the project steps and the timeline so that we completely understood how things were happening, when they were happening, and what was next.

We are beyond satisfied with the finished project and the high quality workmanship of our addition and feel comfortable recommending Lanca Contracting for any building project.

If you have any questions please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,
